

CRITICS' PICKS

Eating Out

continued from page 124

BEST Place to Get Purple Potatoes and Pecan Pesto
on Your Pizza*EVO

1075 E. Montague Ave. North Charleston
(843) 225-1796

It's no secret that EVO in Park Circle has some of the best pizza in Charleston. With a focus on fundamentals like top quality local produce, cheeses, meats, and charcuterie, and their beautifully chewy wood-fired crust, the folks at this pie place satisfy some of the most intense pizza cravings in town, which is why EVO's daily pizza specials are some of the most creative and interesting around. How about the combination of toasted pecan pesto with roasted purple potatoes, sausage, and Split Creek Farm feta on your pizza? Or a pizza with walnut pesto, roasted butternut squash, red onions, speck ham, and local goat cheese? Or try a combination of roasted red pepper purée, fingerling potatoes, Vidalia onions, garlic, fontina, and ricotta. While you can build your own, you'll miss out if you don't give yourself over to EVO's pizza makers' special of the day every now and then. There's no telling what delectable combination of local ingredients will show up. —Brys Stephens